MANUELL & Moore held the official opening last week for its Armadale boutique. The champagne flowed and the label's avant-garde creations were displayed by models who donned outfits designed for the Spring Racing Carnival. Owner and designer Helen Manuell has a passion for fashion that stemmed from when she started using a sewing machine at the age of four. The label won Gown of the Year 2004 and Contemporary Bridal Design of the Year 2004.
